

15th National Biomedical and Clinical Engineering Conference

National Motorcycle Museum, Birmingham

Thursday, 13th October 2011

“Saving lives or money? Tools to help you succeed”

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

10:00 – 10:15	Opening Speech and Welcome	Michael Deighan Conference Chair John Atwill Managing Director, Philips Healthcare
10:15 – 10:45	Keynote Speech	Dr. Andrew Havers GP and Primary Care Medical Director
10:45 – 11:05	Robotic Surgery	Mr. Azad Najmaldin Paediatric Surgeon, Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
11:05 – 11:35	COFFEE
11:35 – 11:55	Securing level 3 NHSLA & CQC compliance	Jacqui Edwards Medical Devices Clinical Risk Manager, Gateshead Health NHS Foundation Trust
11:55 – 13:00	Panel Discussion – Can we afford Quality?	Panel members: Lindsay Grant Consultant Clinical Scientist/Head of Clinical Engineering, RUH, Bath Chris Hopkins Head of Clinical Engineering for Cwm Taf Health Board John O’Connell Research Director, TaxPayers’ Alliance
13:00 – 14:15	LUNCH
14:15 – 14:35	Widespread Errors are Fixable by Better Design	Professor Harold Thimbleby Swansea University
14:35 – 15:05	Management Skills for Biomedics	John Burgess The Chartered Management Institute
15:05 – 15:30	Medicine in Motor Sport: the British F1 Grand Prix	Dr. Ian Roberts Chief Medical Officer British Grand Prix
15:30	Finish

Accredited in 2010
with 5 CPD points.

PHILIPS

sense and simplicity