

13th National Biomedical and Clinical Engineering Conference

National Motorcycle Museum, Birmingham

Thursday, 15th October 2009

“Educating the Future”

PROGRAMME

10.00 – 10.10	Welcome	Professor Michael Deighan NHS National Clinical Governance Support Team
10.10 – 10.15	Welcome	Mr. John Atwill Managing Director, Philips Healthcare, UK & Ireland
10.15 – 10.35	Keynote Speech	Mr. Trevor Campbell Davis NHS International
10.35 – 10.55	Clinical Technologist Training: An In-House Model	Mr. Lindsay Yuile Technical Manager, Glasgow North NHSGGC
10.55 – 11.15	Biomedical Education in the USA	Mr. John Noblitt Director, Caldwell Community College & Technical Institute, North Carolina
11.15 – 11.45	COFFEE
11.45 – 12.05	How Clinical Informatics can simplify Clinical Workflow, Improve Financial Outcomes and help improve and save lives.	Mr. David Russell Vice President Marketing CMO, Healthcare Informatics & Patient Monitoring, Philips Healthcare
12.05 – 13.00	Panel Discussion – Modernising Scientific Careers	Professor Peter Sharp Professor of Medical Physics, University of Aberdeen Dr. Peter Jackson Healthcare Science Advisor to NHS Employers Ms Anne O'Brien Director of Clinical Governance
13.00 – 14.30	LUNCH
14.30 – 14.55	The Future's Bright, the Future's Cloudy	Dr. Mark Ferrar Director of Infrastructure for the NHS
14.55 – 15.15	The Development and use of Video Capsule Endoscopy	Dr. Jonathan Hoare Consultant Gastroenterologist St. Mary's Hospital, London
15.15 – 15.30	Summing Up	Mr. David Sutton Head of Service, Medical Equipment Management Department of Clinical Physics & Bioengineering, NHSGGC
15.30 – 15.35	Close of Conference	Professor Michael Deighan

Accredited in 2008
with 5 CPD points.

PHILIPS

sense and simplicity