

14th National Biomedical and Clinical Engineering Conference

National Motorcycle Museum, Birmingham

Thursday, 14th October 2010

Valuing Engineering and Technology: “Back to Basics”

PROGRAMME

10.00 – 10.10	Welcome	Professor Michael Deighan Conference Chair
10.10 – 10.15	Welcome	Mr. John Atwill Managing Director, Philips Healthcare, UK & Ireland
10.15 – 10.35	Opening Keynote Speech	Mr. Noorzaman Rashid Head of Government and Public Services Practice, Harvey Nash
10.35 – 10.55	Risk Centred Maintenance	Mr. Paul Robbins Technical Support Services, Papworth Hospital
10.55 – 11.15	Endoscopic Removal of Pituitary Tumours –	Mr. Ravindra Nannapaneni, Consultant Neurosurgeon and Spinal Surgeon, University Hospital for Wales
11.15 – 11.45	COFFEE
11.45 – 12.05	Electro Magnetic Interference	Keith Armstrong EMC Consultant, Cherry Clough Consultancy
12.05 – 13.00	Panel Discussion	Panel Keynote Chair: Mark Britnell Head of Global Healthcare, KPMG George Dempsey Head of Clinical Engineering & Physiological Sciences, Royal Victoria Hospital, Belfast Peter Smithson Head of MEMO, University Hospitals Bristol NHS Foundation Trust David Cook Head of Clinical Engineering UCH
13.00 – 14.30	LUNCH
14.30 – 14.50	Total Intravenous Anaesthesia (TIVA)	Dr. Atul Kapila Consultant Anaesthetist, Royal Berkshire Hospital
14.50 – 15.10	Making it better for the patient ... learning from other industries.	Professor Martin Elliott Professor of Cardiothoracic Surgery, University College London
15.10	Summing Up and Close of Conference

Accredited in 2009
with 5 CPD points.

PHILIPS

sense and simplicity